Getting Ready for Something

Moscow announces there has been a general shake-up in the Soviet army in the Far East, with wholesale removal of decorations from officers in the higher command. This, it is explained, is the Moscow way of announcing that officials have been placed under arrest.

The direct inference is that things have not been going well on the Mongolian front, though since there are officers left to dismiss they cannot have gone as badly as the Japanese reports seemed to indicate. At the rate these imaginative documents were killing off the Russian troops a few weeks ago, complete extermination might be supposed to have been achieved by this time.

Another pretty clear suggestion is that Moscow is taking the little Mongolian war as something more than a series of border skirmishes of no particular importance. Officers are not "canned" wholesale when their incompetence could have no serious results. The Chinese war may yet be decided in the country of the Great Wall, with the Chinese playing a minor role in the final scene.

A Reward Well Earned

The binders are already humming in the Regina area, clipped down a crop estimated to yield from 22 to 25 bushels per acre. Next week, it is stated, will see wheat cutting finished in the Qu'Appelle valley.

Next to a good crop, a crop that ripens early and thus escapes all the risks of late summer and an early fall is a boon to the wheat grower. Southern Saskatchewan apparently has both this year. That the farmers there are losing no time in getting the wheat in stock can be taken for granted.

In central and northern Alberta harvest is always later than on the plains to the south and south-east. Against which, place the solid fact that farming in these favored parts of the west carries fewer worries and yields more assured returns.

The west is not only a big country. It is a country in which conditions vary in proportion to its size. The standards which apply in one section do not apply equally in another. And the methods which spell success in one may mean disappointment in another.

It is good news to everyone in the west that areas which have been so heavily hit by drought in recent years have already started to reap a good crop of wheat. May the estimates of the yield be outdone by the returns from the threshing machines.

Tokyo Felt the Bump

Tokyo affects a feeling of pained surprise at the "sudden" notice from Washington that the trade treaty of 1911 is to end next January. "We fail to understand America's real intentions," gapes the foreign office spokesman; but he goes on to show that he has a tolerably clear idea of what the intentions are.

If, he says, Washington wants to make a new commercial treaty, Tokyo will be pleased to negotiate; but the "if" discloses a healthy suspicion that is not at all what Washington is aiming at.

To this the official rejoinder at the United States capital is that the matter of a new commercial treaty will be considered when the time comes; and will hinge on how Japan comes to the table in the meantime towards the rights and interests of United States citizens in China.

This is the diplomatic way of telling Tokyo there is no great concern at Washington about making new treaties with people who do not leave the old ones—and a good deal more than the astute Arta can gather without straining his understanding.

At Shanghai, foreign residents saw the repudiation of the trade treaty as "a neutral power" since the beginning of the Japanese assault on China and on other foreign interests in that country. Tokyo sees it that way too, but doesn't like to admit that it came to chase all non-Japanese foreigners out of China has struck a snag.

Alberta Also Tributary Territory

A report from Victoria of the meeting there of the American and Canadian commissions on the Alaska highway project failed to note that any mention had been made of the possibility of adopting the Alberta route. From the account of the proceedings it seemed to be taken for granted that one of the British Columbia routes would be followed, the only question being whether the highway would run north from Prince George to the Finlay Forks or west to Hazelton, with the American commission favoring the latter plan.

But Hon. Charles Stewart said at Vancouver that a proposal had been discussed to link the highway with the road system of Alberta by a connection from the Jasper-Kamloops highway at present, the statement carries the encouraging implication that the commission chairman expects one to be built; as well as the hopeful possibility that this may be linked with the Alaskan highway.

At Ottawa, Prime Minister King said the Government of the United States is being asked to consider also the possibility of running the highway through this province instead of British Columbia. This also is good news, though it takes a fund of optimism to hope that at this late stage Alberta can step into the deal and annex the highway Premier Pattullo has promoted.

It is a hopeful fact, however, that these preliminary discussions the point is not being overlooked that the new highway can draw traffic from Alberta as well as from the United States and British Columbia. If that idea can be kept before the commissioners, the prospect of getting the Jasper highway extended westward will be strengthened, as well as the outlook for early construction of a trunk road westward from the Peace River area.

Jasper Park and the Peace River district may get the westward outlets they so much need as a side result from the building of the Alaskan highway. Alberta influence should press for the location of the latter road with these connections in view; and so far as possible associate the building of the connecting links with the main project.

Employment officials and railway officials predict that all the fit unemployed men in Alberta will find temporary work taking care of the crop and transporting it to market. As the registered unemployed last week numbered 5,941, the prediction seems reasonable. The more so because an individual proportion of these could be classed as "fit" for such heavy work. But these two, will find their opportunities multiplied as the others get employment. It has been estimated that when one man gets a job he makes work for another man, indirectly, in producing and delivering the supplies he requires and processing or distributing the products of his labor.

The Passing Show

By J. K. COWPER

Housewives toiling over hot stoves these sultry days can take heart. The day of redemption is at hand. Soon it will be a reality to cook on cold stoves. Some ridiculous; not mean on cold stoves. It seems even more ridiculous to see a young engineer, from the General Motors plant all on HOT MEALS ON TOP of the stove, while the cold stoves are being replaced by the new ones.

Current Comment

Proposes Joint Naval Blockade

NEW YORK.—The New York Times (Independent), in commenting on the United States government decision to terminate its trade treaty with Japan, called for a joint British-United States naval blockade of Japan.

"We believe the United States is next on the Japanese program. . . . Any steps the United States takes now to head off the Japanese military caste are primarily steps for self-defence," said The News.

Said the New York Post (New Deal): The administration's action reflects the demand for embargo which is growing so insistently in this country. Embargo would be a proper, legal rebuttal to Japan's treaty violations. Embargo, from this viewpoint, is an act of national defence rather than an act tending towards war.

The New York Times (Independent) said: "To China it cannot fail to bring encouragement in a dark hour. . . . For the British government action notifies Britain that if she adopts a stronger policy in the face of Japanese pressure she will not stand alone with the United States government. . . . The action of our state department says that we still take our promises seriously."

The New York Herald-Tribune (Republican) said: "The very sensational reaction in Tokyo is extremely interesting as a confession that Japan intends to desecrate six months hence, all the punitive restrictions on her trade with this country which the expiration of the treaty will make possible."

Los Angeles Times (Republican): "Whatever the immediate reason for the treaty recession, it seems at least to have put a needed end to the era of futile note writing in protest against Japanese violation of American rights. It is in no sense a hostile or even an unfriendly act."

Boston Globe (Independent): "The case for abrogation appears to be overwhelming. Japan has violated this treaty month by month, year by year, ever since she began her imperial march in Manchuria."

Cleveland News (Republican): "The United States treaty note to Japan clears the way for an embargo six months from now on the shipment of goods to Japan. An embargo is a hostile act."

A new radio station for Western Canada is to be inaugurated tonight by the C.B.C. Its call letters is to be CBK. Why the K? Just because it affords an opportunity to remind Canadians of London, England, who became one of the first and greatest explorers of the truly "great land" of this time—Henry Kelcey. He was the white man to reach the Canadian prairie in what is now Manitoba, and the first to see the countless herds of buffalo which then roamed the plains.

He was only 14 when he came out with Phillips in 1884 when the latter took over the command of York Factory. The lad fraternized with the natives, learning their language and many of their customs, some of which the governor did not like and administered chastisement therefor. The lad ran away with some of his Indian friends, but was brought back and then shortly afterwards because of his knowledge of the dialect was entrusted with the carriage of important mail which he performed with ease.

In 1889 he and an Indian were dispatched to Churchill River in an endeavor to secure the trade of the Indians in that area. When they reached Churchill they found the Hudson's Bay Company's post in ruins.

When Kelcey was 20 he started off on an expedition which took him south to the river where three years ago a memorial was erected to him. In his story he told of having erected a cross "in honor of my boyhood, laid out on its date of year," but no one has ever been able to locate that cross. That summer he travelled over 500 miles in the St. Lawrence and Indian Territory, "to stop fighting and trade with the company."

As a reward for his success the young man was given a furlough to England, but two years later he was back to York Factory to be taken prisoner by the French, under the great Berthel. Kelcey was present at the battle of the Redoubt; and a year later the French returned and Kelcey had to abandon the fort. In 1801 Kelcey was "master of the night" in 1708 he was described in the company's books as "chief trader."

Kelcey was the first to realize the mineral wealth of the north, and it is on record that in 1710 he was told: "As for discovery of mines, etc., it is no time to think upon them now; in times of peace something may be done."

In 1722 Kelcey was ordered back to England for some unatoned reason, and though he made many attempts to return to his beloved north country he never did.

Sunshine Shafts

Boarder: "This steak is like a cold day in June—very rare."

Landlady: "Yes, and your bill is like a day in March, very unsettled."

A boy at school, when asked to describe a kitten, said: "A kitten is a little muddle of fur that rushes like mad at nothing whatever and stops before it gets there."

Bruce Barton in the course of a literary argument said at a recent dinner: "My literary references are mixed. He reminds me of a story."

"A lady went into the butcher's and asked for a pound of fillet of beef."

"The butcher cut it off. 'There you are, ma'am,' said 14 ounces."

"But the lady said, 'No, I want a pound exactly. It's for an important dish at an important luncheon.'"

"The butcher cut off a bigger chunk. 'Eighteen ounces. That's right, ma'am!'"

"No," said the lady—and she was a rich and valued customer—no, I want you to cut me off a pound, no more and no less."

"Oh," groaned the butcher, as he took up his knife again, "you and your pound of flesh! Why, you're a regular Shylock Holmes!"

LAST RITES HELD LIGHTNING VICTIM

One of the most largely attended funerals ever held in Rimby was that of the late Richard Allen Brown, 18, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown of the local hart district, seven miles south of Rimby, who met death by lightning while helping his father and younger brother, Dennis, stock a field in a storm on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. C. Warren of Bentley conducted the funeral service from the United Church at Rimby on Friday afternoon, and interment was made in Mt. Auburn cemetery. The pallbearers, all former school mates of the deceased were: Gordon Bell, Albert Tarrabain, Alex Jeffrey, Milton Cole, Ed. Wozel and Mike Raymond.

Besides his parents, the late Richard Brown leaves to mourn his loss two brothers, Dennis and Donald, and four sisters, Pauline, Vivian, Barbara and Lena.

At the time of the accident Dennis and his father were working in the same field. The force of the electric charge knocked Ed. Dennis to the ground but did not injure him.

GREAT INTEREST SHOWN IN FAIR

Warm, clear weather favored the annual Didsbury fair Wednesday, and it proved to be the biggest exhibition held here for years. With entries totaling well over 1,000, most every class was filled and there was keen competition in every department. Entries showed an increase of between 200 and 300 over previous years.

There was a large increase in the number of horses on exhibition, 175 head being entered. Cattle entries totaled 120, and the quality was well up to standard. There were 244 entries in the domestic science classes and 151 in fancy work, showing a greater interest in the fair on the part of the ladies.

Mrs. Kenny and Mrs. Kemp of Olds were the judges in the latter department. P. W. Leeson is president of the Agricultural Society which sponsors the fair. C. E. Reber, secretary, and J. V. Berch, manager.

Aside from the exhibition, there were many other attractions such as horse-racing, harness-racing, football, athletic events, and mid-way.

In the first hall game, Didsbury Royal Bank, Grand Old, in the semi-final Didsbury beat Grand Central 14-8, and Olds beat Royal 14-12. In the finals, Olds took the money by beating Didsbury 22-9 in a well-contested game.

TROCHU
The U.F.A. picnic and convention held at Sandy Cove, Pine Lake, on Wednesday, drew a crowd of several hundred people from Trochu, Innisfail, Red Deer, Delburne, Wainwright, and other surrounding districts. Ralph Moore, of Pine Lake, was one of the principal speakers. U. N. Newcombe of Red Deer, district agriculturist.

Winners of the various races held during the day were Gary Lawrence, Charles Howell, Val Lawrence, Ben Lawrence.

A successful dance was held in the evening.

WETASKIN
The Covenant Bible camp, which was held at Point Inspiration last week is reported to have been an outstanding success by the campers who returned to town Thursday.

Over 300 of the campers, and the buildings which were destroyed in the timber fire last year have been replaced at a cost of about $1200 and are entirely free from frost.

The farmers are in the midst of hay and it is reported that hay crop is one of the largest for years.

Early Monday morning over a half an inch of rain fell in the Wetaskin district, and the farmers were all hoping that it would be an all day rain, as plenty of moisture is now needed for the crops.

America's Youth Goes Down To Sea In Ships: Yachting Is No Longer Only Rich Man's Game

Not Too Expensive

DOWN to sea goes the youth of North America and that doesn't mean the Normandy, Queen Mary, Rex, Manhattan and the like. It took aquatic sports enthusiasts some time to discover that yachts and outboards needn't be rich men's playthings, but once discovered it brought a rush to the water.

Today there are more than 100,000 outboards in the continent and more than 100,000 sailboats in the various classes. Those numbers are increasing daily.

Many high school children at Vancouver, Victoria and all along the Pacific coast, all over the continent, have their own boats, belonging to yacht clubs, engage in races and go on cruises. Not only the youth of the land but clerks, tradesmen, school teachers, mechanics and others are taking a keen and active interest in the thrilling pastime. Stock models have been in demand for some time. They can be bought second hand at lower figures and those handy with hammer and saw are building their own at home.

CHILDREN'S CRAFT COST AS LITTLE AS 50

The small boat sport is not too complicated or dangerous for children. Youngsters, even as young as eight years and upwards, often pilot their own craft—usually decked-out motor boats which may be bought for $25. Operation cost, a small fee for wind to fill sails always has been and very likely always will be free.

Not only the youth and working classes along the Pacific and Atlantic coasts taking up the sport, but all across Canada and United States, small yachts are to be found on the lakes, rivers and bays.

Edmonton has a yacht club and so has Calgary, while sailing craft are to be found along the coast of Lake Superior, Lake Michigan and other places throughout the province. It's the same everywhere on the continent.

OUTBOARDS CONSIDERED NUISANCE AT FIRST

Not long ago, the outboard was considered a nuisance—noisy, nerve-wracking. Leaping Lena were given the cold shoulder by yachtsmen and power-boats.

MOST BIRDS ARE GOOD FLYERS, BUT SOME HAVE BECOME SPECIALISTS ALONG CERTAIN LINES.

KEEP AWAY FROM THOSE BALL RACKS, KID!

YES SIR! I WAS JUST LOOKIN'!

THAT'S THE LAST TIME I'LL EVER TAKE TAG WITH US. HE'S A PEST... HE WAS INTO EVERYTHING!

HIS FEELINGS MUST HAVE BEEN HURT... HE WENT RIGHT TO BED!

IS ANYTHING WRONG, SON?

YES, MOM... THERE IS, BUT I COULDN'T HELP IT!

I THOUGHT SO... IT'S NOT LIKE YOU TO RUSH RIGHT OFF TO BED! WHAT'S WRONG?

MOM, IS IT ALWAYS WRONG TO TAKE SOMETHING?

IT CERTAINLY IS. THERE'S NEVER AN EXCUSE FOR TAKING SOMETHING THAT DOESN'T BELONG TO YOU!

EVEN IF YOU CAN'T HELP IT? I MEAN, EVEN IF YOU DIDN'T WANT TO TAKE SOMETHING, BUT JUST COULDN'T GET RID OF IT?

SON, THERE'S NOTHING IN THIS WORLD YOU HAVE TO TAKE! NOW WHAT HAVE YOU GOT?

SUDETENLAND REFUGEES ARE NEEDING HELP

Home Furnishings, Clothing Asked To Assist New Settlers

Edmonton citizens, whose sympathies have been aroused by the stories of the unhappy experiences of the refugees from Hitler-dominated areas in Europe, are to be given an opportunity of doing something practical to aid these unfortunate people.

A plea has been issued by a 1700-capacity Edmonton committee for aid for the 130 Sudeten families who have passed through Edmonton to new homes for themselves from the wilderness. Mrs. H. H. Hillier, chairman of the committee, said that the refugees are being sent to the Peace River country. These people, who were forced to flee from their homes in the Sudetenland in Czechoslovakia when Hitler's storm troops overran the country, are being sent to the Peace River country. WOODSWORTH IN EDMONTON ON BIRTHDAY

National Leader Of C.C.F. and Mrs. Woodsworth Visiting

J. R. Woodsworth, M.P. for Winnipeg North Center, and national leader of the C.C.F., came to Edmonton with his wife Saturday to spend a few days in the city on a holiday trip.

They are the guests of his brother, Rev. J. P. Woodsworth, principal of the Edmonton Indian residential school.

Mr. Woodsworth received congratulations from all parts of Canada Saturday on his 65th birthday. The leader has been one of the outstanding figures in the public life of Canada for many years.

BESTS QUICKLY

And Mrs. Woodsworth, taking his first holiday since the Dominion session closed, spent the morning of his birthday visiting quietly. Mr. Woodsworth told reporters that he did not know whether he and his wife would be staying for the provincial convention of the C.C.F. which opens Monday in the Mission Temple.

She said they were on their way to the Pacific Coast for a holiday and had simply stopped off in Edmonton to see Mr. Woodsworth's brother and other friends. However, she said she would not say that they definitely would not be at the convention.

PUBLIC MEETING

Tuesday evening at 8:15 p.m., J. R. Woodsworth, M.P., national chairman of the C.C.F., will address a public meeting in the Mission Temple, following night, Angus McInnes, Vancouver M.P., and son-in-law of Mr. Woodsworth, will be the guest speaker at a public meeting.

But once he was locked inside the police buggy he went on the rampage again and kicked a pane of glass out of the rear door. When they arrived at the station it took four lucky policemen to carry the squirming, screaming, kicking bundle of drunken humanity from the back of the car.

His screams echoed and re-echoed through the corridors of the police station, and the little bad boy just wouldn't keep quiet until he was no longer in the car. He was no longer in the car. He was no longer in the car.

In police court Saturday he pleaded guilty to a charge of being intoxicated in a public place and was ordered to pay a fine of $20 and costs with the option of 30 days in jail. He'll take the option.

Two youths who told the court they got a "tag" on drinking home made wine were convicted on charges of criminal assault on a 15-year-old girl. Because their previous records are clear and the assault wasn't as serious as it might have been, they were let go with suspended sentences of 12 months each.

Wards Are Missing

Two girls, each with wards of the provincial government, were reported missing Saturday from the home in which they were staying in the city. Both were wearing red coats, light-weight dresses and took blue slacks to them.

"THE VISION OF MIRZA"

"That is the vale of misery," said he, "and the tide is a part of

Then Mirza asked why the tide came out of a mist and disappeared again into it. He learned that he could see only that which he wanted to see. He called time that the rest of humanity is veiled. He asked the mortal to look again. Doing so, Mirza said, "I see a bridge spanning a portion of the life. It has three ends and you believe, with others that can see and fail the number of a hundred."

HUMAN LIFE SPAN

The number explained the bridge to the span of human life, which is low severity, occasionally a hundred, but he told him the archer number of a thousand before the days of the Great Flood.

When Mirza studied the bridge carefully, new features came to him. He saw a bridge along the earth, but trap doors and pitfalls along the walkway let them drop the bridge into the life of the earth.

ing down by the sides of fountain, or resting on beds of flowers" could "bear a confused harmony singing birds, falling waters, human voices, and musical instruments." At this point Mirza explained that he would like to have eagles fly to go on these islands again, but he would like to have the beauty and remain there.

Mirza heard further words: the worth of life and the rewards of love, and the mutual understanding of the mist which around the other end of the river eternally.

Quietly he turned again to the spot where the Vision had been, and he saw only the familiar landscape of his life and its mountains. Then Mirza for a time gazed upon a altogether and the bridge of the earth and its eternity.

N.B. CABINET MINISTER DIES IN CAR CRASH

Hon. P. H. Laporte, Woman Hitchhiker Succumb To Injuries

NT. BASIL, N.B. July 28.—Hon. P. H. Laporte, New Brunswick minister of health and labor, and an unidentified, middle-aged woman hitchhiker, were fatally injured early today when Dr. Laporte's car plunged into a high-way washout following a torrential rain, near Siegas, midway between Edmundton and Grand Falls.

The woman had solicited a lift from Dr. Laporte as he was returning from Fredericton. Dr. Laporte told his brother, Dr. C. P. Laporte, that he believed the woman came from somewhere in western Canada.

TWO OTHERS INJURED

Two other men were injured when another car fell previously into the hole. It was still there when Dr. Laporte's car plunged. Dr. Laporte was first elected to the New Brunswick legislature in 1935. In July, 1938, he succeeded the late Hon. D. W. F. Roberts as minister of health and labor. He was born Sept. 1, 1878, at Vercheres, Que. Dr. Laporte was formerly mayor of Edmundton.

Occupants of the second car wrecked in the deep hole were two teachers, Allan McBeath, Saint John, and J. D. B. Howard, Seattle, N.B. They suffered only a severe shaking up.

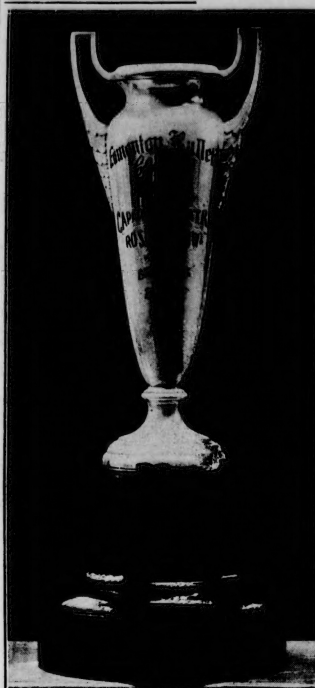

HOLE 11 FEET DEEP

The washout caused a hole 15 or more feet deep and about 30 feet wide, 15 miles below Edmundton. Dr. Laporte, proceeding to his home at Edmundton, crashed into the hole soon after McBeath and Howard hit the same spot. The Laporte car smashed against a concrete abutment.

The woman died on route to the hospital. Dr. Laporte, conscious on arrival there, died about two hours later.

The funeral of Dr. Laporte will be held on Tuesday in Edmundton.

For Finest Rosé

The handsome Edmonton Bulletin trophy, shown above, is again up for competition among Edmonton rose growers who enter their blooms in the Capital Theatre Rose Show, to be held August 7 and 8. The cup is awarded to the exhibitor of the best rose in the show, and last year was won by J. L. Bond, 9748 68 avenue, who showed a beautiful bloom of the "Sir Henry Segrave" species. The Capital Theatre Rose Show is being staged this year for the seventh successive time.

France May Use Its Refugees In Building Up Potential Army Force

PARIS, July 28.—France, haven for "men without a country," at last has opened her official eyes to see the potential army of between 200,000 and 300,000 fighting men living within her borders. More than 180,000 Spaniards of fighting age, most of whom are hardened Anti-Fascist veterans of Spain's civil war, are in French concentration camps.

Thousands of Anti-Nazi German ship across the frontier into France each year either directly or by way of Switzerland or Belgium.

Czechs too have made in France their European headquarters and many of them are well-trained officers and soldiers.

Last April 300 Spaniards signed up for the Foreign Legion and were shipped to its headquarters in Sidi-Bel-Abbes, Algeria. Tens of thousands of Spaniards applied for admission.

Last week-end, the government ordered a "provisional census" of foreigners between the ages of 20 and 40 who are without nationality or were admitted to France as political refugees.

Source close to the war ministry said the high command had found almost 90 per cent of those refugees of fighting age could be considered veteran soldiers.

They either had fought in Spain's civil war or done their military service in the Italian, Austrian, Czechoslovak, German or other armies.

TELFORD RULE NULLIFIED BY POLICE BODY

Vancouver Commission Clips Mayor's Wings in Suspensions

VANCOUVER, July 28.—The city police commission today ruled Mayor J. Lyle Telford has no power to suspend or dismiss any member of the police force, thus nullifying a letter of suspension the Mayor sent to Chief Constable W. W. Foster earlier in the day.

Corporation counsel E. A. Lord told the commission at a special meeting that under the Vancouver city charter the Mayor has no power to suspend or dismiss.

Judge W. M. Harper and Magistrate G. R. McQueen, members of the police commission with Mayor Telford, also questioned the mayor's power, and refused to uphold his suspension order.

They agreed, however, to hold a series of special private meetings, starting Monday in the mayor's office, to hear charges against members of the police department presented by witnesses whom Mayor Telford said he will produce.

The mayor said the charges are of "such a serious nature" that neither public nor press could be admitted to the hearings. Accordingly, they will be in camera sessions.

Mayor Telford said he will produce 10 or 12 witnesses who will testify that certain officers on the police force have broken their oath of duty. The mayor himself will make charges of "maladministration" against the chief constable.

Also still in the running is Gwen Clarke, 7833 Jasper avenue, scored 68 words a minute, with a gross of 6.035 or 82 words a minute. Sylvia M. Wilson scored 70 words a minute. Her gross was 5.575 strokes or 78 words a minute.

Higher scores

Pleasure was expressed by Miss Green, in marking the tests, that the scores showed such improvement over Monday's results. She felt still higher scores would be achieved before the eliminations are ended. Many of the girls, she felt, might improve their technique by the sheets of paper in their typewriters.

Others competing in Friday night test, besides those whose names are on the list, were: Tania, 9635 102 street; Anne Omsack, Vederville; Jean Irvine, 10579 78 avenue; Yvonne Harkness, 9937 108 street; Julia Gogak, 13135 58 street; Helen Cusack, 10038 Jasper avenue; Dorothy Cashman, 9611 105 street; Volberg M. Jorgensen, 132 86 street; Elvie H. Cole, 10520 106 avenue.

FREE TRIP

These eliminations are being held to place an Edmonton representative in the C.N.E. international typewriting marathon. The winner from this city will receive a free all-expense trip to the exhibition in Toronto, including fare, standard sleeper accommodation, meals and hotel room, and $50 a day for five consecutive days. A $5,000 accident insurance policy which will be in force all the time the contest is away from home also will be taken out.

At Toronto a team of 12 Canadian typists will be chosen to compete against a United States team in a typewriting marathon. The highest scoring Canadian typist also will receive an all-expense trip to the New York World's Fair.

Final eliminations in Edmonton will be held in the week of August 7, when special test copy will be supplied by the Canadian National Exhibition.
